

WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 19, 1882.

LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES. April 19, 1882. For the Middle Atlantic States cloudy weather and rain, southerly winds, lower barometer and stationary temperature.

THE TROUBLE AT FISHTOWN.—For some time past the serenity of Fishtown has been disturbed by constant disputes between some of the dealers and the renter of the wharf, growing out of the different constructions placed upon the law providing that all fish shall be landed at the wharf, and cut on boards placed over the water, and making the renter responsible for the removal of all fish within twenty-four hours after the cutting of the fish; also the refusal of the purchasers of the fish to give the renter of the wharf the fish, as has been the custom for a long series of years.

Mr. S. J. Reed, the renter of the wharf, a few days ago swore out a warrant against Mr. Wm. Devaugh and others, charging them with violating the law alluded to in having their boats on Mr. Smoot's wharf and cutting them in their houses. The matter came up before Mayor Beckham for settlement last night at six o'clock. Corporation Attorney Kemper appeared for the city, and Mr. Edmund Burke for Devaugh and others. After the hearing of all the parties interested, and the arguments of counsel on both sides, which occupied over three hours, the Mayor gave his decision construing the law to mean that no fish should be landed or cut except on the corporation fish wharf, at Point West, or on the adjoining property. The adjoining property he held to be the American coal wharf on the north, and that portion of Andrew J. Fleming's property on the south, owned and controlled by Smith & Lyon, occupying about 22 feet front.

After giving his decision which seemed to be satisfactory to all parties, he directed the superintendent of Police to notify all persons engaged in the fish trade that no fish should be landed or cut except within the limits above recited.

This morning Mr. Reed applied to the Mayor to know whether or not he was entitled to all the fish made on the wharf, and upon this application the question came up at eleven o'clock. Besides a large number of spectators there were present in the Mayor's office the members of the Committee on Public Property of the City Council, who have charge of the fish wharf, the Auditor, and Mr. Mushbach, counsel for Mr. Reed. In response to questions the members of the Committee and the Auditor stated that it had always been the custom for the renter of the fish wharf to receive the fish, and the wharf had been rented to Mr. Reed with that understanding. Mr. Mushbach stated that Mr. Reed had rented the wharf with the understanding that he was to have the fish, and had made a contract with B. J. Burgess & Co. to furnish the fish to them at $2 per ton; that unless he received the fish he would not only be $100 or $500 out of pocket, but be liable to be sued by B. J. Burgess & Co. for failing to comply with his contract. Mr. Reed further stated that he had advised Mr. Reed to keep an account of the fish not received by him and apply to the city for reimbursement for the loss sustained. The Mayor said he would execute any order of the Committee on Public Property of the City Council, the Mayor would be promptly and willingly obeyed by either side as the remedy could be sought in another direction. The matter was finally referred to the Committee on Public Property which held a meeting immediately and decided that Mr. Reed was entitled to the fish. The action of the committee was communicated to the Mayor, and he in turn informed the contestants. Mr. Devaugh says he will sue the city for damages sustained by being deprived of the fish from the fish purchased by him during the season.

THE NEW READJUSTER EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. A meeting of the reorganized re-adjuster executive committee, recently "purged of traitors," was held Monday night in the office of the Commissioner of Accounts of the Corporation Court, with D. A. Windsor in the chair. An effort was made to elect a secretary. Three men, one white and two colored, were put in nomination for the position, and a ballot taken, resulting in no choice. It being evident that there was a "fitch" somewhere, the election for secretary was postponed. Resolutions endorsing the republicanism of the Richmond Whig, the administration of President Arthur, the action of the Board of Visitors of the Central Lunatic Asylum in electing the colored man Tuncell, of this city, one of the physicians to that institution, the course of Senator Mahone, Gov. Cameron, D. A. Windsor, &c., &c., were adopted. It was decided not to put any candidates in the field for the May election. Rev. Fields Cook, colored, made a short exhortation, after which the crowd dispersed.

CLOSE OF THE MECHANICS' FAIR.—The fair for the benefit of Lafayette Lodge, Independent Order of Mechanics, which has been in progress at McBurney's Hall since Monday night of last week, closed last night. At twelve o'clock the successful candidates for the several articles to be presented to those receiving the highest number of votes were announced as follows: For pen, Charles Froisnor, 506 votes; for pen, Charles Froisnor, 506 votes; for watch, Mrs. Lizzie Baker, 431 votes; for necklace, Miss Messina Keesey, 1361 votes. Mr. Leonard Marlbury then presented the articles. To-night a complimentary hop will be given to the ladies who assisted at the fair. The fair was a very successful and pleasant one.

CORPORATION COURT.—Judge N. B. Meade presiding. In re administrators of H. S. W. Barker, deceased; the administrators of the said H. S. W. Barker were removed, on motion of their sureties, they having failed to give a new bond, and thereupon W. D. Hudson was appointed administrator de bonis non of the estate of H. S. W. Barker, and qualified and gave bond.

The will of Selina Powell, deceased, was admitted to probate.

First National Bank of Alexandria, Va., vs. H. S. Barker; justice's attachment; judgment for the plaintiff and order for the sale of attached property to pay the same.

B. Wheatley vs. Ida Lemo; in chancery; report of commissioner filed and order for distribution.

THE BEAUTIFUL CANTATA.—"The Coronation of the Rose," will be presented at Armory Hall early in May for the benefit of the infirm. About forty young ladies, representing the different churches of the city, are rehearsing for it, and from the manner in which the solos and choruses were rendered last evening, it promises to be one of the most charming musicals ever given in this city. The managers have secured the services of Mr. W. H. Daniel as musical director.

POLICE NEWS.—The only criminal case before the Mayor this morning was that of Benson Odell, colored, charged with an assault upon Sarah Alexander, also colored, last night at Shiloh church. The woman put in evidence several teeth that the accused had knocked from her mouth. Odell admitted his guilt, and was locked up for the non-payment of $7.10, fine and costs. Joseph Chauncey was fined $2.50 by Justice Whittlesey this morning for beating the child of Elizabeth Waters.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

The steam tug Juno, Capt. Matt Kersey, returned from Petersburg last night.

The lunch and supper given yesterday and last night by the Parish Aid Society of Grace church was a successful and pleasant affair.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to Robert Allen, of Fortress Monroe, Va., and Laura V. Carroll, of Washington.

At the meeting of the Old Dominion Building Association last night, thirteen shares of stock, or $2,600, were sold at 25 per cent discount.

A new pump is being put in at the old Court House corner. Two colored men lost their lives in repairing the old pump at different times.

Mr. Luther Benson, who has been lecturing in Washington for several weeks past, will deliver a temperance lecture in Armory Hall to-night.

The remains of Mr. Jas. B. Beavers, whose death occurred at the residence of M. Geo. A. Nowland, in the First Ward, yesterday, were taken to Fairfax county to day for interment.

Mr. K. Kemper received yesterday from A. C. Withers, of Suffolk, Grand Chancellor of Knights of Pythias, of Virginia, his commission as District Deputy Grand Chancellor for this, the ninth district.

Mr. B. K. Plain, formerly of this city, but now of Memphis, Tenn., has rented the residence of Mr. M. H. Jamney, on upper King-street, and will shortly return to this city, which he will make his future home.

Mr. W. D. Chichester, an employee at the Washington & Ohio Railroad depot, was struck in the left eye by a flying piece of steel in the yard of that depot a few days ago, and had the sight entirely destroyed.

Mr. Owen N. Kirby left here yesterday for Chicago, where he has secured a position in a commercial house. Mr. Joseph Padgett left here Monday night for New York where he will reside in future.

A government buoy tender this morning, placed in the river off the ship yard, a new can buoy surrounded by a light so arranged as to burn sixty days. It is said that if the buoy gives satisfaction, the light house on Jones' Point will be abolished and the new light used in its stead.

A slight fire occurred this morning about 11 o'clock, in a small frame house on Royal, between Gibson and Franklin sts., occupied by two colored families. A portion of the roof was burned, but the flames were extinguished by the neighbors before much damage had been done and before any alarm was given.

The Columbia steam fire engine, which has been undergoing repairs at the shops of Mr. Collins, the boiler head being out of order, for the past few days, was tested yesterday afternoon, and a cold water pressure of 125 pounds, equal to 300 pounds of steam, was easily attained. Engineer Campbell is now much pleased with the condition of his engine, and thinks he can make it do service that will equal, if not surpass, its best days.

The uniformed Patriarchs of Marley Encampment, No. 6, of Odd Fellows, of this city, W. W. Sherwood, Captain, have received an invitation to participate in a parade to take place in Washington on the 26th of April, the 62d anniversary of the introduction of Odd Fellowship into the United States. The Patriarchs have recently purchased new and handsome uniforms, and will no doubt make a fine appearance in the parade. The first Lodge of Odd Fellows in this country was organized in Baltimore in 1819.

Readjuster Caucus.

A caucus of the Readjuster members of the General Assembly was held last night and the following judges nominated:

Pulaski, Harvey A. Jameson; Wise, T. G. Wells; Alexandria, Nathaniel B. Meade; Eighth Circuit, Richard L. Henley.

According to the Democratic view, Judge Meade, recently elected corporation judge of Alexandria, holds for a full term; according to the Readjuster theory, he was elected only for the unexpired term of Judge Chilton deceased. Hence this nomination.

After the caucus at the Capitol the prominent men of the party went down to the Whig office, where they had a lengthy conference with General Mahone in reference to the deadlock on the Boss's Big Bills. The chief anxiety of the Readjusters is now about the congressional apportionment. If they do adjourn this week it will only be to commence a hot canvass in the counties of the Famous Five, with the view of bringing a stalwart public sentiment to bear upon those senators, and if that can be accomplished, another extra session would be called. As for the land-side bill, it is well known that some leading Readjusters are in favor of electing commissioners by the people (the Senate proposed) rather than lose the bill. The gentlemen claim that by such process they could elect two-thirds of the commissioners.

The amendment proposed in the Senate by Mr. Webb limiting the pay of commissioners to not more than $3,000 per annum was probably framed to anticipate such result by making the office in Richmond and other large cities (where the democrats might elect) "no great shakes."

About all that could be learned last night concerning the Whig-office conference was that there was an understanding that a resolution would be offered in the House to-day for a recess of the General Assembly. If that fails in the Senate (as it probably will), then sometime during the week a resolution will be offered to adjourn on a day named, say on Monday or Tuesday next.

Members will draw no pay after Friday. It is not now even claimed that there is "a good chance" of securing Mr. Hale, or of converting Messrs. Williams and Wingfield. The famous five hold the fort.

If the recess project can be carried through, the General Assembly will adjourn on Saturday to meet June 7th.

There was no new development as to the dead-lock. Messrs. Williams and Wingfield were out of their seats a good deal, but were generally to be found talking together in the rotunda. The readjusters do not now claim that they can see their way through their troubles. Mr. Hubbell, chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee, who came here on Monday, left yesterday. General Mahone is still here. Mr. Massey reached the city yesterday evening. — Richmond Dispatch of to-day.

DIED.

Tuesday, April the 18th, at half-past five p. m., ELIZABETH GOODS, widow of the late James C. Goods, in the 75th year of her age. 2d—Funeral services from her late residence, 171 Duke street, between Washington and Columbia, Thursday, at 3 o'clock p. m. [Wash. papers please copy.] Entered into rest on the 15th day of April, 1882, at Groveton, Prince Wm. co., Va., MEDORA LEWIS DOGAN, in the 30th year of her age. Very peacefully did her spirit leave this earth to return to God who gave it. "For thus he giveth his beloved sleep."

Fees and Doctors.

The fees of doctors is an item that very many persons are interested in just at present. We believe the schedule for visits is $3.00, which would tax a man confined to his bed for a year, and in need of daily visits, over $1,000 a year for medical attendance alone! And one single bottle of Hop Bitters taken in time would save the $1,000 and all the year's sickness. — Post.

AND WHAT ARE FOUND IN THEM. The store at the corner has been renovated in the improved style, making it by far the handsomest business house in the city.

In this store can be found the handsomest line of CLOTHING, both for Men's and Boys' wear, ever witnessed in Alexandria. I can show in Dress, Business and Working Suits the largest stock, the greatest variety and the best made Clothing; in fact, I can show more goods in my clothing department than all the clothing houses in Alexandria can combined.

I have this season taken special pains with the little folks. The great demand for well made CHILDREN'S CLOTHING has induced me to lay in a stock undoubtedly the largest ever seen in one establishment, ranging in price from $2.50 upwards. Every suit made and trimmed in the most elaborate style.

My FURNISHING GOODS DEPARTMENT shall be kept up to its usual high standing. Everything that can be found in a first class furnishing store can be had at bottom figures. The store adjoining the corner, lately occupied by Mr. Wm. N. Berkley, shall be devoted exclusively to HATS and TRUNKS; not having the required amount of room at my corner store, and knowing the citizens required a first class hat establishment in their midst, saving them the trouble of going to Washington to look for the correct styles.

I have opened this store regardless of expense to satisfy the
